Resolution VIII: The Commission resolves that to facilitate the consultation of records preserved by them the Records Repositories of the State Governments be requested to prepare and publish consolidated guides to their pre-Independence records.

Rajasthan: The Rajasthan State Archives had already taken up the work of preparing a General Hand-Book to the Records under its custody which will cover all the former States of Rajasthan.

Jammu & Kashmir: The Government has been approached in this behalf to provide more staff to the Archives Department to take up the publication schemes of this Department.

Uttar Pradesh: A Hand-Book to the Records of the The State Archives has been published.

Karnataka: Efforts will be made for the implementation of the recommendation.

Delhi: Delhi Archives is at present conserving pre-Independence records and as and when it is completed necessary guide will be prepared.

Bihar: Six publications of pre-Independence records have already been published by the State Archives to facilitate the research work and preparation of guides for other records is under way.

Pondicherry: The Archives section is in the initial stage of reorganisation. Steps are being taken to implement the resolution gradually.

Resolution IX: To facilitate genuine research work at the State Archives, the Commission resolves to recommend to the State Governments to dispense with the scrutiny of excerpts taken by research scholars from all 'open' records.

Jammu & Kashmir: This requires amendment to the Historical Research Rules which will be considered in course of time.

Bihar: Action is being taken by the Government.

Karnataka: Efforts will be made to implement the recommendation.

Delhi: The notes and excerpts should be released to the research scholars after scrutiny.

Maharashtra: Excerpts taken by bona-fide research scholars are not required to be submitted for scrutiny.

Pondicherry: The Archives section is in the initial stage of reorganisation. Steps are being taken to implement the resolution gradually.

Resolution XIII: The Commission resolves to recommend to the State Governments that the records of the Nationa movement, especially from 1885-1947, in the custody of the offices of the Home Department and other Offices/ Departments and quasi-Government Offices may be transferred to the State Archives and thrown open for researc where this has not been done already.

Delhi: Records pertaining to freedom movements are available in the offices of the Deputy Commissioner, IG(Police) and Central Jail. The Deputy Commissioner, Delhi, has agreed to transfer the records upto 1947 and about 8000 files have been received while the Central Jail, New Delhi has sent registers of the convicts from 1899 to 1950. The police authorities have declined to transfer the records in question.